Mimosa Spa

For Thai people, we call 'Mimosa pudica' or 'Mimosa' in a name of 'Mai-ya-rab'. However, we know another word which is pronounced the same with this. That is 'Mai-ya-rap', the name of one famous giant in 'Ramayana' which is the most famous epics in Asian about heaven and earth creatures. He is the lord of underwater world and is also the partner of 'Tod-sa-kun', the lord of giants who has 10 heads and 20 hands. 'Mai-ya-rap' is a giant who is full of power and knowledge. He is also nearly immortal because he can move his heart out from his body and keep it in the hidden place. His weapon is a medical cane which he always uses it to blow any magic to the foe. From this extraordinary relationship between 'Mai-ya-rab' and 'Mai-ya-rap', it is the origin of "Mimosa Spa and Massage". Conglomerate with scents of Thai flowers and Thai traditional belief about heaven is the main concept of massages and spa treatments here.
